CITY DIRECTORY.

en and H. E. Wall, A. E. Craile, Chas. Bugg and W. F.

PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY DIRECTORY.

(OFFICE AT FARMVILLE)

R. H. WATKINS.

WATKINS & WATKINS, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,-

FARMVILLE, VA. Practice in Courts of Prince Edward, Cum-berland, Buckingham, Nottoway and Ame-lia, and United States Court at Elemno at, Especial attention paid to cases in bank-rantes.

Nottoway C. H., Vu. Farmville, Va.

MANN & CRUTE, Clothing,

Attorneys at Law.

S. P. VANDERSLICE,

ATTORNEY AT LAW. Will practice in the courts of Prince Ed-Office over H. E. WALL'S store, Main St. FARMVILLE, VA.

C. H. BLISS,

GENERAL AUCTIONEER, FARMVILLE, VA.

Solicits business in this and adjoining counties, Charges moderate.

J. R. SPENCER, M. D., Physician and Sargeon.

SPECIALITIES: of Children, Obstetries, Fever Whiskey, Morphine, Opinin and Tobacco

Office at Crute's Drug Store, room ove

M. M. MARTIN,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Richmond, Va., Farmville, Va.

Will be at office in Farmville every Mon

WHITE & CO., DRUGS. Medicines and > Prescriptions Carefully Compounded. FARMVILLE, VA.

That HUGH O'GARA & CO.,

RICHARDSON & CO..

If You Drink, Drink the Best! STUART.

MARYLAND XXXX,

BRADDUCK and the famous

COOPER'S OLD CORN. PLANTERS' BANK,

FARMVILLE, VA.

R. S. PAULETT, - - President W. G. Venable, - - Cashter Capital paid up. $50,000. Surplus $30,000 DIRECTORS:

H. R. BARROW, R. M. BURTON, H. A. STOKES, C. M. WALKER, J. M. CRUTE, T. J. DAVIS, Does a general banking business. Interest allowed on time deposits. Loans negotiated. Checks sold on all principal cities and Col-ections made.

HAVE YOUR PRINTING DONE AT THE HERALD JOB OFFICE, FARMVILLE

Tutt's Liver Pills keep the bowwan, a n. Farrar and els in natural motion and cleanse Dr. Talmage Asks Us to Assist the the system of all impurities An absolute cure for sick headache, mar. D. T. T. on and W.E. dyspepsia, sour stomach, con- We should neware of Selfishnessstipation and kindred diseases.

"Can't do without them" R. P. Smith, Chilesburg, Va. writes I don't know how I could how it is possible to help others who S. L. Stambert, H. E. Wall and do without them. I have had I. B. Patrix, H. E. Wall and W. P. Liver disease for over twenty

Tutt's Liver Pills

NEW

JEW

I have just opened with a Mrs. Appleton, of Boston, the daugh-nice line of Shoes,

-AND-

Gentlemen's Furnishing

Jackson's Old Stand,

Druggists' Sundries, our goods before purchasing elsewhere. Polite attention shown all and with us it is a pleasure to show goods wheth- is eating one orange! er you wish to buy or not. Yours te serve,

J. BERMAN.

Odds and Ends of Useful Goods at Whiskeys, Wines, Etc., Mid-Winter Prices.

IN EVERY PAIR OF THE Famous Zeigler Bros. Shoes

-Our brands of-

MEN'S SHOES

well as for styles.

FLEMING & CLARK, FARMVILLE, VA.

Farmville Herald ANDTHE Thrice-a-week New York World. Both one year for $1,60.

Send orders to THE HERALD.

Farmville, Va

Twenty Years Proof. ANOTHER'S BURDENS.

Henvy Laden.

to a Thirsty Sont-Help the Necuy.

(Washington, Jan 23-Copyright, 1823) care and responsibility. The text years. Am now entirely cured. of Christ.

> others shoulder it. You be the digit will never again want to be seen with while others are the ciphers on the working apron or in shirt sleeves, for but augmenting you. In opposition to when you praise him there will be a vances in my text the gospel theory: did not finish his work as soon as he

of yours, and each one will take part of ter of Daniel Webster, was dying after long illness. The great lawyer, after pleading an Important case in the controom, on his way home stopped at the house of his daughter and "Father, why are you out to-day in this The great lawyer went into the next room and was in a flood of tears, saying: "Dying herself, yet thinking only of me," Oh, how much more beautiful is care for others than this everlasting taking care of ourselves. High up in the wall of the temple of Banibec there are three stones, each weighing 1,100 tons. They were lifted by a style of machinery that is now among the lost arts. But in my text is the gospel ma-chinery, by which the vaster and heavier tonnage of the world's burdens is to be lifted from the crushed heart of the buman race. What you and I most need to learn is the spirit of helpful-

Encourage the merchant. If he have Goods. a superior style of goods, tell him so. If he have with his clerks adorned the show windows and the shelves, compliment his taste. If he have a good business locality, if he have had great success, if he have brilliant prospects from the shelves to fit out a family for purchase—buying three apples while he

Before the night of the day when you moved away from the neighborhood ing words to the merchant there will be store and say she has lost her purse; there's nothing the matter. it there, she did not take it away, she any delicate and complimentary infernight that merchant will hear that your sympathies, some style of goods of which he has a into the store and pay a bill under protest, saying he has paid it before, but the receipt has been lost. Now, encourpleasant things said to keep him from becoming apoplectic with plethora of

Encourage newspaper men. If you if you understood that their most elabprate article is sometimes flung out because there is such great pressure on port of a speech is expected, although the utterance be so indistinct, the discourse is one long stenographic guess. approach of men who want complimenreport a burial, the next day to report gives me more and more distress to see a pugilistic encounter; shifted from pain." place to place by sudden revolution | Physicians have so many hardships, which is liable to take place any day in so many interruptions, so many annoyour great journalistic establishments; ances, I am glad they have so many enprecarious life becoming more and couragements. All doors open to more precarious-if you understood it | them. They are welcome to mansion you would be more sympathetic. Be | and to cot. Little children shout when in your mind what the nineteenth cenand give encouraging words to all who are engaged in this interest, from the the boy that throws the morning or evening newspaper into your basement plumb the pipes, or they will calcimine the eeilings, or they will put down the the heart. Looking over any assem- not recognizing the fact that the mem lift. Paul proposes to split up | scolded at because he seems to have eac burdens into fragments. You lamed a horse by unskillful shoeing take part of mine and I must take part when the horse has for months had with a mechanic when he does ill. Do you ever praise a mechanic when he

into your stores, you meet them in the city markets, you often associate with them in the summer months. Officeseekers go through the land, and they stand on political platforms, and they independent life of a farmer, giving flattery where they ought to give sympathy. Independent of what? I was brought up on a farm; I worked on a farm; I know all about it. I hardly saw a city until I was grown, and I tell you that there is no clays of people in the country who have it harder and who more need your sympathy than farmers. Independent of what? Of the curculio that stings the peach trees, of the rust in the wheat, of the long in, with the rye down? Independent of the grasshopper, of the locust, of the army worm, of the potato bug? Independent of the drought that burns up the harvest? Independent of the cow with the hollow horn, or the sheep with the foot rot, or the pet horse with a nall in his hoof? Independent of the cold that freezes out the winter grain? Independent of the snow bank out of which he must shovel himself? Inde pendent of the cold weather when he for the future, recognize all this. Be stands thrashing his numbed fingers not afraid that he will become arrogant around his body to keep them from and pulled up by your approval. Before being frosted? Independent of the night some shopgoing person will come frozen ears and the frozen feet? Inin and tell him that his prices are exor- dependent of what? Fancy farmers bitant and that his goods are of an in-ferior quality and that his show win-city and go out in the country to build dow gave promise of far better things | houses with all the modern improvethan he found inside. Before the night ments and make farming a luxury may Opposite Crute's Drug Store, of the day in which you say encourage not need any solace, but the yeomanry ing words to that merchant there will who get their living out of the soil and be some crank, male or female, who will who that way have to clothe their fam-FARMVILLE, VA. come into the store and depreciate lifes and educate their children and everything and haul down enough goods pay their taxes and meet the interest on mortgaged farms, such men find a a whole winter without buying a cent's | terrific struggle. I demand that office We ask your inspection of worth. If the merchant be a grocer, seekers and politicians fold up their there will be some one before night who | gaseous and imbecile speeches about will come into his establishment and the independent life of a farmer and substitute some word of comfort of everything else, in that way stealing | drawn from the fact that they are free all the profits of anything that he may from city conventionalities and city epidemies and city temptations. My most vivid remembrance of boyhood is of my father coming in on a approve that merchant he will have a very hot day from the harvesting field had debt which he will have to crase, a | and scating himself on the doorsili bebad debt made by some one who has cause he was too faint to get into the house, the perspiration streaming from without giving any hint of the place of | forehead and from chin, and my mothdestination. Before the night of the er trying to resuscitate him with a day when you have uttered encourag- cup of cold water which he was too some woman who will return to his saying to us: "Don't be frightened; she left it there in the store, she brought tired, that's all; a little tired." Ever since that day, when I hear people knows it is there, leaving you to make | talking about the independent life of n farmer I see through the sham. ence that you wish to make. Before | Farmers want not your flatteries, but

Encourage the doctors. You praise large supply is going out of fashion, and the doctor when he brings you up from there will be some one who will come | an awful crisis of disease, but do you praise the doctor when, through skill ful treatment of the incipient stages of disease, he keeps you from sinking YOU GET YOUR MONEY'S WORTH. age that merchant, not fearing that he down to the awful crisis? There is a will become arrogant or puffed up, for great deal of cheap and heartless wit THEY ARE FOR LADIES ONLY. | there will be before night enough un- | about doctors, but I notice that the people who get off that wit are the first to send for a doctor when there is anything the matter. There are those who undertake to say in our day that docknew how many annoyances they have, tors are really useless. One man has written a book entitled: "Every Man His Own Doctor." That author ought to write one more book entitled: "Every the columns and that an accurate re- Man His Own Undertaker." "Oh," says some one, "physicians in constant pres-ence of pain get hard hearted!" Do they? The most celebrated surgeon of and that the midnight which finds you | the last generation stood in a clinical asleep demands that they be awake, and | fepartment of one of the New York that they are sometimes ground be- medical colleges, the students gathered manufactories; sickened at the often approach of men who want complimentary newspaper notices, or who want | if I retire. These surgeons can do this newspaper retraction; one day sent to | as well as I can, and as I get older it up and say: "Doctor, is that you?" They stand between our families and the grave, fighting back the troops of disorder that come up from their enthey have befriended.

affable when you have not an ax to be | they see them coming down the road, afford to bear each other's burdens.

Encourage the lawyers. They are carpets, or they will grain the doors, or they will fashion the wardrobe. Be not often have to breathe the villainous air often have to breathe the villainous air of courtrooms, and they so often have to be be be be be been a fit of economy on the part of officials the first thing to be be be been a gies. To take 40 or 50 boys whose par having the impulse to destroy he yielded to destroy he yielded to it. His idea that the world is only for his amusement and that rugs and shoes are designed by providence by the fact that the only man allowed to stand on Mount Sinai beside the Lord was Moses, the lawyer, and that the Bible spoke of Christ as the advocate. Encourage lawyers in their profession of transcendent importance—a profession honored by having on the bench a Chief Justice Story and at the bar a Rufas Choate.

Encourage the teachers in our public schools—occupation arduous and poorly compensated. In all the cities when there comes a fit of economy on the part of officials the first thing to do is always to cut down teachers' salagies. To take 40 or 50 boys whose parof courtrooms, and they so often have ed to it. His idea that the world is that theory of reliashness Paul ad- lawusit brought against him because he lie schools—occupation arduous and lawusit brought against him because he come an outcast. The more we insist on having our own way, as if the whole world was made for us the worse time are we going to have.

In meet the expectations of parents who think their children at 15 years of age ought to be mathematicians and metaphysicians and rhetoricians, to work successfully that great stuffing the successfully the successfully that great stuffing the successfully the successfully that great stuffing the successfully the successfu machine the modern school system, is a very arduous work. Encourage them the other's, and so we will fulfill the law feel you have the right to find fault by the usefulness and the everlastingness and the magnitude of their occu-teacher, thank the educator. Encourage all invalids by telling them how many you have known with the same ailments who got well and not by telling them of their sunken eye or asking them whether the color of are more soothing than chloral, more stimulating than cognac, more tonic than bitters. Many an invalid has recovered through the influence of cheerful surroundings.

Encouraging all starting in life by yourself becoming reminiscent. Eshind the counter cating your luncheon, with one eye on the door. Established lawyers, encourage young lawyers by telling them the time when you broke down in your first speech. Established ministers of the gospel, encourage young ministers by merciful examination of theological candidates, not walking around with a profundity and overwhelmingness of manner as though you were one of the eternal decrees. Doctors established, by telling the curtain of your lip; compress your lips and put your hand over your mouth and keep still. Encourage the troubled by thoughts of release and reassociation. Encourage the aged by thoughts of eternal juvenescence. Encourage the herdsman amid the troughs of ain to go back to the banquet at the father's homestead. Give us tones in the major key instead of the minor. Give us "Coronation" instead of "Naomi." You have seen cars so arranged that one car going down the hill rolled another car up the hill. They nearly balanced each other. And every man that finds life | fashion; for he that hath eyes to read up hill ought to be helped by those who have passed the heights and are descending to the vale. Oh, let us bear one another's burdens! A gentleman in England died leaving his fortune by will to two sons. The son that stayed at home destroyed the father's will and pretended that the brother who was absent was dead and buried. The absent brother after awhile returned and claimed his part of the property. Judges and jurors were to be bribed to say that the returned brother and son was no son at all, but only an impostor. The trial came on. Sir Matthew Hale, the pride of the English courtroom and for 20 years the pride of jurisprudence, heard that that injustice was about to be prac-ticed. He put off his official robe. He put on the garb of a miller. He went to the village where that trial was to take place. He entered the courtroom. He somehow got empaneled as one of the jurors. The briber came around, and the man gave ten pieces of gold to the other jurors, but as this was only a poor miller the briber gave to him only five pieces of gold. A verdict was brought in rejecting the rights of this returned brother. He was to have no share in the inheritance. "Hold, my lord!" said the miller. "Hold! We are not all agreed on this verdict. These other men have received ten pieces of gold in bribery, and I have received only five." "Who are you? Where do you come from?" said the judge on the bench. The response was: "I am from Westminster hall. My name is Matthew Hale, lord chief justice of the king's beach. Off of that place, thou villain!" And so the injustice was balked, and so the young man got his inheritance. It was all for another that Sir Matthew Hale took off his robe and put on the garb of a miller. And so Christ took off His robe of royalty and put on the attire of our humanity, and in that disguise He won our eternal portion. Now, are we the sons of God! Joint heirs! We went off from home sure enough, but we got back in time to receive our eternal inheritance. And if Christ bore our burden surely we can

Present-Day Thoughts.

BY "NEMO." For Young Men:-For yonder pup campment by the cold river. No one things of life reached him without hears such thanks as the doctor hears. effort and were accepted without ques-They are eyes to the blind, they are tion. Then came days of loose jointed other story. feet to the lame, their path is strewn roaming, and at last a bark of his own with the benedictions of those whom and a burst of wild freedom. About that time his troubles began; for having teeth he started to use them and having the impulse to destroy he yield-

work successfully that great stuffing it. It is all very well to explain that this is due to ancestral memory dating back to the time when dogs were wild and food scarce. Yet, nevertheless, we pation, and when your children do well call him silly; and wisley too, for there compliment the instructor, praise the are more bones where that came from and they will not be clean picked either. To every day its bone and to every dog its day, so why should he bury for future use that which has no use? The providence that rules over dogs is not dissimilar to that which that style of disease ended fatally or telling them how badly they look. Cheerful words are more soothing than chloral, more it. The best preparation is to use dogs is not dissimilar to that which it. The best preparation is to use things as they come, and from them get the strength, not to turn back and gnaw over the past, but to go forward to use the things that are yet to be. Live right, live wisley, and another tablished merchants, by telling these day will bring another bone. And, by young merchants when you got your | the way, some of us place reliance on first customer, and how you sat be- such picked bones as "great descent"dead bones, all of it. Silly puppies. Some pups delight in the uncleanly. They revel in corruption and they have their reward for they are driven forth into the chill purification of the outer air, leaving behind them the simple, pleasant comforts to which they were blind when they might have seen. No longer may they proudly gambol along in good company, but shunning and decrees. Doctors established, by telling young doctors how you yourselves once mistook the measles for scarlatina.

In good company, out shunning and detectation are theirs. Their nature, you bad cases have been permanently cured by it. It is equally efficient for itching say? Of course, but nature is not in piles and a favorite remedy for sore > that they are natural. But, and the "but" is tremendous in its import—the way of such impulse is the way to isolation from the things that are sweetest and dearest and best. Puppy's scent is keen for uncleanliness and he can always find it if he direction of those impulses-strong, insistent, in-bred and exacting-whose power we all know and whose excuse is seeks, until the world-his world-is rounded out by it. There is no need to draw the parellel save in the sketchiest can see. Evil is here in the world and those who seek find; good is likewise here and much of it, but they who seek evil find no good, and the further they go less chance have they to return. Soap will cleanse and a chain confine the dog, but no soap ever yet touched the unclean spirit and its chain is not one that holds it back from evil, but that binds it down where good is hard to reach. The way of return to flowerstrewn paths is thick with thorns of the anguish and of the loneliness that come from knowing that the wrong way was chosen. Compared with this problem, that of the befouled pup is simple.

What the little canine cannot under stand he barks at. He wastes his breath upon the great round moon so long that morning drives her away. Lo, the barking did it. Not a little bit my saucy puppy. Your voice sounds in your own ear very majestic but the moon never heard you. She gave way to the mighty day of perfect light and not to a narrow minded cur. How like some two-legged puppies! Great facts that were facts before our gambols began, and will be facts after our last whine is uttered come looming up before us and are too great for us to fully understand. But nothing being too vast for argument, at a certain stage of puppy development we straightway bay and mouth against the fact. Grandly do we utter ourselves. The partial light of one truth melts into another more perfect, but it is not our noise that does it. A fact is a fact and no barking will ever prevail against it. Words from milk-teeth mouths will the same matter. Those who have undo the faith of ages. Nor is it likely that the power of faith in the unseen lar advertising, will be, as heretofore, and eternal is after vanquishing dynasties and uprooting kingdoms, itself to be vanquished by the clamoring of per line for each and every insertion of those who, being unable to understand, advertising matter among the local bark; and who being unable to think reading.

deeply, merley clamor.

It is not fair to speak only of the bad the world was first rounded out by the qualities of dogs and men. There are limits of the kennel, where the good good ones worth chronicling, always have been and always will be. But as with the bone, so for another day as

Parsnip Complexion.

A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced to kidney trouble. It pervades all classes of society, in all climates, regardless of age, sex or con-

When writing please mention this

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain presentive of that dangering disease. It Doyne has a full line of Furniture for parlor, chamber, dining-room and nursery. Consult him before you buy rom others.

Terrer, Salt-Rheum and Eczema.

And if you have nothing to say that is encouraging. O man, put your teeth lightly together and cover them with Co., Druggists.

> Dr. Cady's Condition Powders, are just what a horse needs when in bad condition. Tonia blood purifier and vermifuge. They are not tood but medicine and the best in use to put a horse in prime condition. Price 25 cents per package. For sale by Cunningham & Co., Druggists.

Dont Cough.

"There is no better way to get rid of your temper than by keeping it," says an exchange. Some people seem to think that they can get rid of a bad cough in the same way. Keep your cough and you will soon find it necessary to keep something worse. Better invest a quarter in a bottle of David & Cough Syrup—the remedy that cures when others fail.—For saleby Winston & Gray.

Pratt's Horse, Cattle and Poultry od is still the leader. For sale by H. C. CRUTE, Ag't for Farmville.

For LaiGrippe.

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash-Thomas Whitheld & Co., 240 Wabashav., corner Jækson-st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by Cunningham Drug Co.

If you want anything in household or school furniture, Carpets, Curtains, Rugs, Pictures or Wall Paper go to

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

The HERALD does not solicit advertisements to be inserted among its lo cal news matter, and would prefer that advertisers use the other columns of the paper. The rates for advertisements are low-especially on six months and yearly contracts. The rates for advertising among the locals which have obtained with this paper since its foundation, will be rigidly adhered to, viz: TEN CENTS per line for the first insertion and five cents per line for each subsequent insertion of contracts with the HERALD for reguallowed a uniform rate of FIVE CENTS